Some Suggestions

- All players may count the time someone reads to them.
- Finish each day's reading session in more than one sitting if your child becomes restless.
- Become a partner with the library in rewarding your child's reading accomplishments this summer! Your game board has a prize spot called: "My family reading reward _____!"
- We invite families to agree upon a special treat of their own design with their child for having reached a reading goal.

Ask Your Librarian for More Great Suggestions!

- Visit to an area attraction or activity
- Extra time on phone, TV or game station
- Help make favorite dinner of child's choice
- Have a sleepover or pool party with friends
